

X. NEW RECORDS

Important: reports should have the following format:

Family name, full name of taxon (incl. all authors), rough locality, date of collection, collector's name and collection number, place(s) of deposit, previously known distribution, additional remarks, authority for the report. In a footnote the Foundation(s) from which grants were received may be mentioned. For examples see below.

The Editors of the Bulletin disclaim any responsibility for possible misidentifications or superfluous records, these should be accredited to the correspondents who have reported them. We will moreover decide whether we will include a record or not depending on their significance as we see it. For the future the exact criteria for inclusion will be formulated after some experience with the subject.
