

VI. MISCELLANEOUS

(continued from page 109, 111)

BEAMAN, J. (MICH) received the Michigan State University College of Natural Science's Distinguished Faculty Award for many accomplishments relating to research, teaching, identification and cataloging of plants, as well as the successes of his former students.

BELTJENS, PETRUS LEONARD HUBERTUS (25 August 1901, Roermond, The Netherlands – 1 August 1965, Heerlen, The Netherlands). — Catholic priest of the S.V.D. order. Flores: March–October 1930, June 1933–May 1942; Celebes: May 1942 (Pare Bare) to September 1945 (Kampili); Flores: September 1945–October 1948. Collected mosses (and perhaps other plants) around Todabalu, Flores, in 1933. Between 1950 and 1960 visits to the Philippines, Papua New Guinea for visual recordings.

The mosses for unknown reasons went to Budapest (BP/BPU?), were sent to Groningen, The Netherlands (GRO), and are now deposited in L.

BREMER, K. (S) will succeed Dr. O. HEDBERG on 1 January 1990 as Professor of Systematic Botany in Uppsala (UPS).

COOK, R.E., has been appointed as Director of the Arnold Arboretum.

DARNAEDI, D. (BO) obtained his D.Sc. at the Tokyo University on the biosystematics of Dryopteris under the guidance of Dr. K. IWATSUKI.

DRANSFIELD, Ms. S. (K) in recognition of her work on bamboos was appointed Honorary Research Fellow of the Royal Botanic Gardens, Kew, in September 1989.

GHANI-BAUER, Ms. F.D., has moved from UKMB to FRIM per 1 September 1989. She was appointed as Plant Genetic Resources Officer and is working on aroids.

KIAPRANIS, R. (WEI) has moved down to LAE and has been appointed Acting Keeper of the Herbarium.

KIEW, Ms. R. (UPM) spent her sabbatical leave at CGE writing up the results of field work in the herbaceous flora of the Malaysian Peninsula. She has taken micrographs of pollen for a pollen atlas of the ca. 100 bee plants commonly visited by the domesticated Malaysian honey bee, Apis cerana.

KULIP, J., has been appointed as Forest Botanist in SAN. He is engaged in writing a Tree Flora of Sabah, starting with the Anacardiaceae. Moreover he is studying the medicinal plants of Sabah and works on bamboos.

PIJL, LEENDERT VAN DER (21 December 1903, Utrecht, The Netherlands – 16 April 1990, The Hague, The Netherlands). — Fl. Males. I, 1 (1950) 419, photo; 5 (1958) cccxiii; Fl. Males. Bull. 28 (1975) 2309, 2457 (suppl. bibliogr.); 29 (1976) 2511, opp. 2524 (photo).

SAW, L.G. (KEP), forest botanist with FRIM, is currently pursuing a M.Sc. in plant taxonomy at RNG.

SUNARNO, B., obtained a Sarjana Utama Degree (= ± M.Sc.) at the Gadjah Mada University, Yogyakarta, on a revision of Labisia.

TAN, B.C. (NY) will work at LAM (Herbarium of the Natural History Museum of Los Angeles County) for 2 years from January 1990, doing part-time curatorial, part-time scientific work.

TIPOT, Ms. L., was appointed as PROSEA Malaysia Country Officer in April 1989 and is based at FRIM.

TURNER, I.M., took up the post of Lecturer in Ecology at the National University of Singapore.

WHITMORE, T.C., has moved per 1 January 1990 to the Department of Geography, Downing Place, Cambridge CB2 3EN, U. K.